5pm Monday, 11th until 10am Friday, 15th September 2017

Join Cath Woolridge and the SOW (Sound of Wales) Collective for a week of inspiring teaching, spirit-filled worship, prophetic insights, creative workshops and more.

If you love creativity, if you are a worshipper at the core, if you feel in a desert and need inspiration and encouragement then this is for you. A whole week of extravagant worship, creativity, delving into the living word of God, journaling workshops, creative writing workshops....living in the broken places seminars, father heart seminars, identity in Christ talk and all done in a creative inspirational way.

This is for any age 15 and up - come as families, couples, singles, young, old - all are welcome....we are excited to see what our amazing God does as we open up our hearts to the open heaven that is above us.

Sound of Wales travel internationally and are passionate about using creativity to inspire, equip and impact the church and communities with the amazing truth of the gospel of Jesus Christ. They are a collective of musicians, creatives and storytellers based in Wales who love Jesus and want to be a part of revealing the love of Christ through the sounds of creativity of this land of song and passion. SOW do this to see salvation spring up from the ground, chains broken, lives restored and for revival to blaze this nation and the world again! SOW are more than just a band...they are prayer-soaked visionaries and revival fuelled missionaries.
